Have you ever wanted to "Rule the School"?

Well, here is your chance!

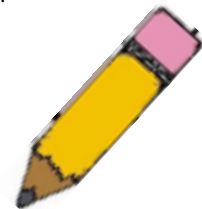

Applications are now being accepted to become
"Principal for a Day" on Friday, June 3, 2016!

How does it work?

This is an exciting, optional opportunity to demonstrate what "Harmony" means to you. A writing prompt and rubric will be provided for you, and three finalists will also experience an interview with Townline staff members on Thursday, May 19th, at 8:00 a.m.

If selected to be "Principal for a Day", you will participate in many activities with Dr. Kieffer throughout the busy day.

What do I need to do?

Submit your writing prompt on the attached page, you may type your response if you prefer, answering this Essential Question:

How do we create harmony?

When is the deadline to submit my essay?

Your essay is due to your homeroom teacher by Monday, May 9th.
